

November

Daily Academic Vocabulary Calendar

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	31 oppose (verb) To be against something.	1 opposite (noun) Something or someone that is completely different from another. (adjective) As different as possible.	2 opposite (adjective) Facing away of moving the other way.	3 opposite (adjective) Located directly across; on the other end or side.	4 Week 12 quiz	5
6	7 sum (noun) A number that you get by adding two or more numbers.	8 total (noun) The whole amount. (adjective) Making up the whole amount. total (verb) To find the sum of numbers.	9 summary (noun) A short statement giving the main points of something that has been written or spoken.	10 summarize (verb) To give the main points of something that has been written or spoken. → Week 13 quiz	11 Veteran's Day	12
13	14 model (noun) A small version of something (verb) To use something as the plan or idea for something else	15 model (adjective) Ideal or perfect.	16 copy (noun) Something that looks or sounds exactly like another thing. (noun) One of a number of things that were printed at the same time.	17 copy (verb) To write down the same way. (verb) To do the same as somebody or something else.	18 Week 14 quiz	19
20	21 Thanksgiving	22 vacation	23 Happy	24 Thanksgiving	25 vacation	26
27	28 suggest (verb) To offer something as an idea suggestion (noun) An offered idea or thought	29 suggest (verb) To give a hint of something else or offer clues.	30 claim (verb) To say that something is true.	1 claim (verb) To get something or to say that something is yours.	2 Week 15 quiz

Directions: You will learn a new vocabulary word each day at school. It is your responsibility to study the words as part of your weekly homework. You will be tested on the words you have learned that week on Friday. There will be a review test on all the words you've learned every nine weeks. The goal of learning these words should be that they become part of your written and spoken vocabulary.